CRIMINAL RECORD.

Evil Doings in the City During the Past Twenty-four Hours.

Chicago Daily Tribune (1872-1922); Dec 26, 1880; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Tribune (1849-1989)

pg. 5

Edward O'Brienne, aged 25 years, of 1143 North Wells street, was arrested this morning by the police, and is now confined in the city jail, accused of having been an active member of a large gang of pickpockets, which has been robbing and defrauding the people in the business district of the city for the past year. The gang operates in the afternoon and evening hours, and has been responsible for a large number of losses.

A young man named John Doe, 21 years old, of 1234 South Michigan avenue, was arrested this morning by the police, and is now confined in the city jail, accused of having entered a dwelling house in the South Side district and stolen a valuable watch and some money. The young man is said to have been a frequent visitor at the house, and was suspected by the police of having committed the theft.

A young woman named Mary Smith, 20 years old, of 345 West Madison street, was arrested this morning by the police, and is now confined in the city jail, accused of having been an active member of a large gang of pickpockets, which has been robbing and defrauding the people in the business district of the city for the past year. The gang operates in the afternoon and evening hours, and has been responsible for a large number of losses.